

Evanston welcomes new senior housing

Posted: Dec 08, 2011 10:49 AM EST Updated: Dec 08, 2011 10:58 AM EST
By Dylan Moody - email

EVANSTON, OH (FOX19) -

The Evanston community and Cincinnati Mayor Mark Mallory welcomed the new Woodburn Pointe senior housing today with a ribbon cutting ceremony.

The ribbon cutting also had participation from City Manager Milton Dohoney, The Model Group, and Evanston Community Council.

This community has been transformed into brand new housing and has become an asset in the neighborhood. Funded in part by the federal Neighborhood Stabilization Program, the development is providing 24 rental units to senior citizens.

Woodburn Pointe is a three-story LEED certified building located at 3330 Woodburn Dr. featuring large windows, spacious units and elevators.

Copyright 2011 FOX19. All Rights Reserved.